A CARD TO THE PUBLIC.

THE NEWBERN Daily and Weekly Progress.

THE PUBLIC that the unceressonious entrance of Burnside into Newbern on Friday last has compelled the temporary suspension of the PROGRESS. This was a barbarous and villanious proceeding of old Burnside, inasmuch as it has deprived the public of the advantages of a good paper, besides the inconvenience to the citizens of Newbern.

By the discomfiture of our arms at Newbern, I have lost everything I had in the world—presses, type, and stock and other office material and furniture and other property of all kinds, is all gone—but still I hope to be able to make arrangements at an early day to issue the PROGRESS at some point not very remote from the old stand; this will depend however upon the extent to which Burnside is able to penetrate the bowels of the land.

Having lost all I have, I must urge all who are indebted to the PROGRESS office to make immediate settlement. Though in the army my address will be for the present, Goldsboro, N. C.

Papers in the State that receive the PROGRESS in exchange will please copy or notice this card.

Goldsboro, March 17. 1862.

PUBLISHED DAILY AND TRI-WEEKLY
THE MERCURY gives daily reports of the Market and Marine Intelligence in Charleston, THE Mancuar gives daily reports of the Marret and Marine Intelligence in Charleston, and of Charleston commerce in the leading staports of the world. The Weekly Prices Current is made up with much care, and from the most reliable sources. Its connection with the "Associated Press" insures the latest intelligence by Telegraph and the earliest news by Steamers from Europe. It has an able and accomplished Correspondent in London (a gentleman connected with the editorial staff of the London Times.) and regular Correspondents in New York Washington, Key West and Hayana. The monthly New York Pashion Letters and weekly letters on Life in Washington are additional attractions in favor of its lady readers. Its literary notices, from the pen of a gentleman who occupies perhaps the highest position among the literary men of the South, are discriminating and comprehensive.—
Attention is paid to all matters of general concern, especially those in reference to the Planting and Agricultural interest, and to the current news of the day. Great care is taken that nothing shall appear in its columns which should be excluded from the family dreis.

The political creed of the Mancuar consists in the principles of the Democratic Party, as laid down in the Virginis and Kentucky Resolutions of 1798 and 1799—the Sovereignty of the States; a strict construction of the Sectoral Constitution by the General Government, the agent of the States; a strict construction of the Sectoral Constitution by the General Government, the agent of the States; a strict construction of the Sovereignty of the States; a strict construction of the Sovereignty of the States; as the Government. The bridge over the river at Newport city was burned by a detachment from Fort Macon on Tuesday, the 13th-four days after the battle at Newbern—and almost entirely destroyed. The bridge was 180 feet long, and very substantial and well built.

ENGLISH VESSELS DETAINED. The ships Alliance, Captain DeForrest, from St. John, N. B., and Conder, of Liverpool, Captain Goodwig, are lying at the dock at Morehead City. The Alliance is loaded with a cargo of rosin and turpentine, and has, also, four bales of cotton on board. She was originally from Liverpool and arrived off Charleston in June, 1861 and finding that port blockaded, proceed ed to St. John, N. B., where she discharged her cargo and took in an assorted cargo, what it was, I believe the Government are fully informed. She arrived at Beaufort August 22d, and landed her carge on 25th, at the dock of Morehead City. Two days after, she was loaded with her return cargo but the United States blockading steamers arrived off this port, the ship has not since attempted to go to sea. The

The negottations were conducted by a gentleman of South Caroline, who had the confidence not hear a negotiation from a Power which refused to recognize the place they claimed in the society of untions; they did not act upon that feeling; but, on the 13th August, the Congress of the Southern States reselved to embrace the principles laid down in the Treaty of Paris, with the exception of that relating to privateering, which we had not asked them to adopt. When the President communicated this decision to the negotiator, he pointed out that it had been adopted in the sanguine expectation that we should adhere strictly to the article of the Treaty which laid down that block extremity of Toxas. Thus the attitude which we had adopted towards one of the belligerents had been to induce them to make a generous concession on an understanding from which we seemed to have departed."

It ever the exigences incident to the affairs of men demanded "the right men in the right places," we are surely in the midst of such exigences now. The government of North Carolins, for the next two years, it is reasonable probable, will have to be conceived, inaugurated and fashioned, militarily, to a preponderating degree. This proposition cannot, by any broad thinking man, be gainsaid, ergo, it.

Contract in Prioss.—Among the items in late Northern papers, is the following:

"Wages have declined in all parts of the North. In the West provisions are directly on account of the loss of the Southern market. The enemy being at Huntsville is conrmed. Two trains they met at the time are captured. They have possession of the telegraph. Their force is supposed to be three thousand.

Direct information from Nashville, on the morning of the 6th, state that Gen. Dumont is the Military Governor of the post with a brigade of twenty-five hundred men Andy Johnston wanted ten thousand to protect Nashville. Fourteen thousand are sick (?) All the hospitals and many private houses are filled with them. Last Cincinnati and Louisville. There was great demoralization in the Federal army, and thousands had deserted. Col. Buford's Kentucky regiment refused to go into Nashville. Hundreds were deserting daily, in squade of fifteen or twenty. The people in the vicinity of Nashville show the greatest loyalty to the Confederacy.

The force at Shelbyville is twenty-five ndred. The remainder of the Federal bia, towards Savannah. No troops have gone towards Chattanooga. Blue rockets were going up from west to east on Sunday evening-supposed to be signals for the enemy to hasten their troops.

The let Michigan regiment has said that if the war did not cease in thirty days they would lay down their arms. Many had applied for the writ of habeas corpus, to get out of the Federal army; they say that they were decived; that they did not enter the army to fight against a people contending for their liberties. Gen. Damont wanted to know if they thought the writ would be respected in Nashville, as it had not been elsewhere. He said be would shoot the first man who applied for it. The Michiganders then said that they would kill their officers in the first fight, raise the white flag, and go over to the

On Island No. 10 there are five batteries and twenty-two gans, but few tents, and no property, except cannon balls, that can be made available. The Island was abandoned by all but gunners a week since.

There is now excellent opportunity to notice and hear of the effects produced by huge mortar shells. Holes, as if apimals had bureawed, are visibles where the missiles fell without exploding, and large trees are broken like twigs. Where the fuse proved true, and they did burst, their tructive preperties are apparent—timber for a hundred vards around bearing scars, and hollows scoped out of the earth. Yet, from the great precaution taken by the emy, only three men were killed, altho the prisoners tell of many narrow escapes.
